 “Concerning the present status of the industry I may truthfully say that the situation is not as gloomy as it has been struck a devastating blow by the passage of the Underwood bill. Had the provisions of the bill ceased with the

“The factories at Iowa, Wisconsin, Colorado and Ohio that are closed for the year 1914, would all be operating this year without a doubt, if it had not been a case of a 10 per cent reduction in the tariff, but with a sugar in 1913 and two years hence, the utter hopelessness of the situation was such that those companies felt they might just as well close first as last.”

they are thus obtaining at first hand, by unbiased persons, the data necessary for them to determine whether or not the present tariff should be amended so far as sugar is concerned in order to save a great American industry. We are satisfied on one thing and that is if the information gathered by the commission is correct, the sugar and the industry be treated on its own merits.
